NADFAS

GREENWICH

DECORATIVE AND

FINE ARTS SOCIETY

Member society of

NADFAS

NADFAS

NADFAS was founded in 1968 and is an educational organisation with charitable status, consisting of member societies throughout the United Kingdom, mainland Europe and Australia.

Each autonomous society organises a programme of illustrated monthly lectures, study days, visits to art galleries, museums, cathedrals and country houses that are related to the decorative and fine arts. All have the same aims, the knowledge, and stimulation of interest and care of the Arts.

The success of NADFAS is based on the high quality of the monthly lectures chosen from the National Directory of Lecturers complemented by additional speakers of commensurate status and experience.

GDFAS

The Greenwich Decorative and Fine Arts Society was registered with NADFAS in the spring of 1998 and is currently recruiting members. If you would like to become a member, please complete this form.

Lectures will take place at the Maritime Greenwich Campus of the University of Greenwich in King William Court Room 315. There are good lifts to the top floor. For a map see www.greenwich.ac.uk. Refreshments are available from 7.15pm and lectures start promptly at 8pm.

Parking: There will normally be ample free parking in the university car park, provided that you have given us your car registration number. Alternatively, there is a public car park on the corner of Park Row and Trafalgar Road and this is free in the evenings

- There are ten lectures a year held on the second Monday of each month apart from April and August.

DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998

Your details will be held on computer and will be sent to NADFAS and recorded on their relevant filing system, and NEL (separate legal entities from the Society), and will be used by them only in connection with NADFAS activities.
